

Bjørn Ousland Bjørn Ousland

Northward - With Nansen to the North Pole
Nordover. Med Nansen mot Nordpolen

Cappelen Damm 2008
56 Pages

Midsummer Eve 1893, the canons sound at Akershus fortress and the ship Fram sails into Oslofjord. The ship is on its way to the North Pole and Fridtjof Nansen is on board.

Ousland presents the relationships onboard the Fram during the three-year expedition to the polar ice, and the dramatic attempt to reach the pole itself by ski and sled. The book includes everything from text and illustrations to cartoon strips, making Northward a fast-paced non-fiction book guaranteed to appeal to young readers.

CHILDREN AND YOUNG ADULTS PICTURE BOOK (VOL. I IN A SERIES OF IV)

PHOTO: JUNE WITZØE

Bjørn Ousland is a cartoonist and illustrator. He has received several awards for his children's book illustrations and for his cartoons, which have been published abroad.

FOREIGN SALES

Russia (Paulsen Co. Ltd.)

AWARDS

The Norwegian Ministry of Culture's Special Prize for Children and Youth 2014 was awarded to Bjørn Ousland for his polar series.

PREVIOUS TITLES

Selected:

Bisk får en ny venn, 2008

Bisk får en liten unge, 2007

Kalle Komet og meteormonsteret, 2007

Kalle Komet og skreklingene, 2006

Villas vals, 2005

Kalle Komet, 2005

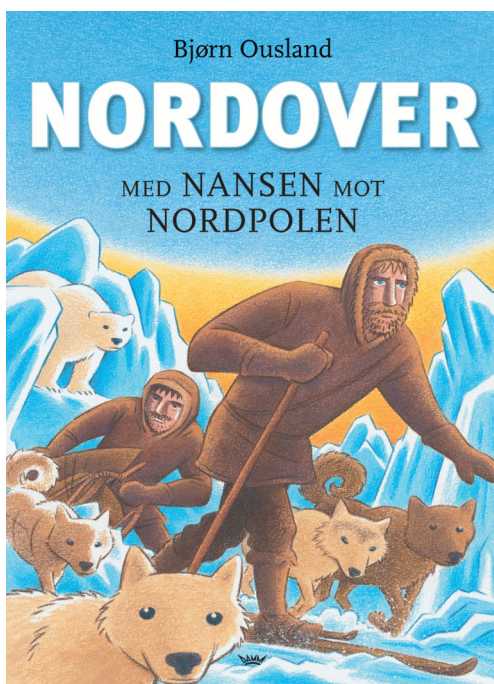

Barnepolitiet, 2004

Monky Pop-saken, 2003

Ernst på vingene, 2003

RIGHTSHOLDER

Cappelen Damm Agency
foreignrights@cappelendamm.no
www.cappelendamm.no

“A brilliant idea... Ousland has succeeded in making this a truly exciting tale.”

VG