A Fish for Luna (En fisk til Luna)

Picture Book | Gyldendal | 2014 | 40 pages

Luna can't sleep. She opens her window and peeks out. There is something out there. Something is gliding slowly between the houses. Is it a balloon? A flying fish? Luna's parents say it is ugly and that she can't keep it, so Luna decides to help it back home. But it won't say where home is. All it says is "Ay", "Yue", "Kuu", "Maan", "Tsuki", "Karoo" and "Kamar". And it says "Luna". With great bravery Lisa Aisato explores life's big issues and presents an original and fresh take on subjects as human as loneliness and hope.

Tails Throughout Time (Halens historie)

Picture Book | Cappelen Damm | 2013 | 40 pages

This is a fantastically original picture book built on one simple yet alluring premise: What would life be like if people had tails?

A shrewd and lexical text combined with classic and beautiful illustrations, Tails Throughout Time entices the reader to visit a hypothetical world – a world populated by people with tails! We see how tails can be used to convey emotions, how they can come in handy when we want to flirt a little, or even to poke fun at others.

Tails Throughout Time is a beautiful and charmingly outlandish picture book written in the style of a factbook, all about the history of the tail.

Illustrated by Daria Rychkova. Winner of the BolognaRagazzi Award - Opera Prima 2014.
