

PRODUCTION SUBSIDY FOR PUBLICATION OF NORWEGIAN ILLUSTRATED FICTION BOOKS

Foreign publishers, including publishers in the Nordic region, wishing to publish fiction picture books/illustrated novels/graphic novels by Norwegian authors and illustrators may apply for production subsidies. The publication must uphold the same production standard as the Norwegian publication.

The publisher must simultaneously apply for a translation subsidy from NORLA, Norwegian Literature Abroad.

Read more about NORLA's translation subsidies at www.norla.no

It is possible to apply for a production subsidy from NORLA for up to NOK 12.000.

The application deadlines for production subsidies are the same as for the translation subsidies for fiction books:
1 April, 1 August and 15 November.

Applicant

Publishing house:
Contact:	E-mail:

Book details

Author:
Illustrator:
Original title:
Rightsholder (publisher/agency):
Publication language:
Total no. of pages: Of which, no. of illustrated pages:
Word count:
Format: Binding: Hard cover / Paperback..... / Pocket...../ Other.....
Print run:
Planned publication month/year: Sales price: EUR..... / USD..... (incl. VAT)

Distribution and marketing

Distribution channels:
Marketing plan:

Production costs

Total production costs: EURO..... / USD
The applicant must enclose a detailed summary in English which includes:
* costs pre-press (cover and book design, typesetting, lay-out): EURO/ USD.....
* costs press (paper and binding materials, printing and binding): EURO/ USD.....

Date:.....

Signature:.....

Send the application to: firmapost@norla.no and write 'Production Subsidy' in the subject field.