

PRODUCTION SUBSIDY FOR PUBLICATION OF NORWEGIAN PICTURE BOOKS FOR CHILDREN

Foreign publishers, including publishers in the Nordic region, can apply for production subsidies for the publication of Norwegian picture books for children. The publication must uphold the same production standard as the Norwegian publication, and the publisher must simultaneously apply for a translation subsidy from NORLA, Norwegian Literature Abroad.

Read more about NORLA's translation subsidies at www.norla.no

It is possible to apply for a production subsidy from NORLA for up to NOK 8000.

The application deadlines for production subsidies are the same as for the translation subsidies:

Non-fiction picture books: 1.2., 1.6. and 1.10.

Fiction picture books: 1.4., 1.8. and 15.11.

Applicant

Publishing house:
Contact:	E-mail:

Book details

Author:
Illustrator:
Original title:
Rightsholder (publisher/agency):
Publication language:
Total no. of pages:	Of which, no. of illustrated pages:
Word count:
Format:	Binding: Hard cover / Paperback..... / Pocket...../ Other.....
Print run:
Planned publication month/year:	Sales price: EUR..... / USD..... (incl. VAT)

Distribution and marketing

Distribution channels:
Marketing plan:

Production costs

Total production costs: EURO..... / USD
The applicant must enclose a detailed summary in English which includes:
* costs pre-press (cover and book design, typesetting, lay-out): EURO/ USD.....
* costs press (paper and binding materials, printing and binding): EURO/ USD.....

Date:.....

Signature:.....

Send the application to: firmapost@norla.no and write 'Production Subsidy' in the subject field.