Daddy says it's bedtime, but his little girl wants them to carry on reading. Just one more book before she goes to sleep! She wishes that someone would write a book about her for once. Up on the bookcase there isn't a single story about her!

They patch together a book about the girl. Will there be a slime monster in the book? Perhaps she will climb up the world's tallest mountain? Maybe she will travel backwards in time to meet her Grandpa? Or go into the future to meet herself as a grown-up?

Threads is based on Torill Kove's latest animated film of the same name. A red thread lifts a woman up and leads her to a small child. The child is anxious and doesn't like to be touched, but eventually the two are tied together. We follow them through the child's upbringing – until the thread loosens and the child goes its own way.

A poignant and touching story about love and attachment, told almost without a single word.

Luna can't sleep. She opens her window and peeks out. There is something out there. Something is gliding slowly between the houses. Is it a balloon? A flying fish? Luna's parents say it is ugly and that she can't keep it, so Luna decides to help it back home. But it won't say where home is. All it says is "Ay", "Yue", "Kuu", "Maan", "Tsuki", "Karoo" and "Kamar". And it says "Luna". With great bravery Lisa Aisato explores life's big issues and presents an original and fresh take on subjects as human as loneliness and hope.

This is a fantastically original picture book built on one simple yet alluring premise: What would life be like if people had tails? A shrewd and lexical text combined with classic and beautiful illustrations, Tails Throughout Time entices the reader to visit a hypothetical world – a world populated by people with tails! We see how tails can be used to convey emotions, how they can come in handy when we want to flirt a little, or even to poke fun at others. Tails Throughout Time is a beautiful and charmingly outlandish picture book written in the style of a factbook, all about the history of the tail. Illustrated by Daria Rychkova. Winner of the BolognaRagazzi Award - Opera Prima 2014.

'Hello, I've discovered a hole in my apartment ... it moves around ... yes ... if you could come and look at it ... bring it down to you, you say ... how ... hello!'

The protagonist has discovered a hole and tries to find an explanation. He seeks expert advice. But not everything can be explained. Perhaps he will just have to accept that it's there.

The Hole has simple, expressive drawings by pen and computer. The hole is punched right through the book, so it exists in real life.

47 million years ago there lived an ape-like little creature in a jungle in Germany. Today she is best known to the world as the fossil Ida. In this wonderful, illustrated picture book we learn how she lived and how we know what we do about her today.

When paleontologist Jørn Hurum introduced Ida to the world's media in 2009, she became a scientific sensation. Ida is our very own 47 million year old ancestor, and this picture book written by Jørn Hurum and Torstein Helleve from the Natural History Museum and illustrated by Esther van Hulsen brings Ida to life once again.

Also as animated e-book: South Korea

The three Billy Goats Gruff are on their way to the meadow, as usual, to eat the green grass. But along the road they find a New sign: Water Park – 200 meters. The Gruff brothers think this sounds tempting. And maybe they won't have to face the troll that is always waiting under the bridge to scare them every time they head for the hills to buy waffles.

The water park is exciting, especially the long slide. But then the troll shows up...

Illustrated by Gry Moursund.

The book forms the basis for an animated film by the production company Qvisten Animasjon (2023).

Yesper and Noper live together in a house on top of a hill. They are good friends, even though they are very different from each other. Jesper says "YES" to everything, and Noper says "NO" to everything. Some days, Noper gets fed up with all the things Yesper has said YES to. The house is filled to the brim with lamps and stuff they don't need. In the end, Noper asks Yesper to move out, and Yesper says YES immediately. So, they live on a YES mount and a NO mount, until one day Yesper gets so tired of being alone, that he hatches a sneaky plan to get Noper to say yes to a car ride.

Awarded the Ministry of Culture's Prize for the best début work in 2008.

Garmann's Summer (Garmanns sommer)

Picture Book (Vol. I in a trilogy) Cappelen Damm 2006 44 pages

Rights: Cappelen Damm Agency | foreignrights@cappelendamm.no | www.cappelendamm.no

So far sold to: Belarus, China, Czech Republic, Denmark, Faroe Islands, France, Georgia, Germany, Hungary, Italy, Japan, Lithuania, The Netherlands, Palestinian Territory, Poland, Qatar, Republic Of Korea, Russia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, USA

Summer is nearly over and Garmann is going to start school. He dreads it, and he tries to find out if adults dread doing things, too. At the same time, he keeps checking if he's got a loose tooth. Garmann thinks about life and death, the present and the future. «What do you want to be when you grow up?» Aunt Augusta whispers to him. «A sword swallower,» Garmann answers.

Winner of the Bologna Ragazzi Award 2007.

Two more titles on Garmann have been published to much acclaim in Norway and abroad: Garmann's Street (2008), and Garmann's Secret (2010) - both so far sold to eleven countries.
