Deep Fjord (Alt er mitt)

Novel | Kagge Forlag | 2018 | 365 pages

Haavard is from a wealthy family of lawyers, and the first to become a doctor. Clara is the ambitious outsider from Western Norway who has landed an influential position at the Ministry of Justice. Both victims have immigrant backgrounds, motives seem multiple. The case becomes a national debate, reaching all the way to the Minister of Justice's desk.

Deep Fjord is the author's masterly debut as a thriller writer, surprising, well-written and gripping, reminiscent of successes like Gone Girl and Girl on the Train. The majestic Norwegian landscape creates a beautiful and chilling backdrop to the story. Clara is sharp and intelligent, a blue-eyed heroine, an enrichment to the genre.

The heavens will weep blood (Himmelen skal gråte blod)

Crime fiction | Cappelen Damm | 2019 - Due Ultimo May | Approx. 280 pages

The heavens will weep blood is a one-of-a-kind thriller journey.

Even Stubberud is a soldier in the Special Forces. But now he has fallen sick with cancer. Before he leaves the force he takes on one last mission: A simple escort of a terrorist to Somalia. The plane from Oslo is hijacked, and the terrorist is set free. The only one who can save the 245 passengers from certain death is an unarmed man, sick with cancer, with no knowledge about planes.

Sigbjørn Mostue has written a fast paced story that also touches our hearts. At times you might have to loose it all to win what is most important.

The Drone (Dronen)

Novel | Aschehoug | 2018 | 375 pages

A man stands in a closed down military camp and sends a drone ut into a dark forest. He is filming. The time is 09.35, Friday, 16th June, 17 degrees celsius, just before sundown. The tops of the pine trees seem to be in flames as the last rays of sunlight create a sharp dividing line of brilliant orange and dark green.

The drone approaches the open area of a rapeseed field. A tent suddenly appears on the drone's monitor. The tent stands exactly where Evie Thorn was stabbed to death five years earlier.

The Drone is the second novel in the stand alone-series featuring Marian Dahle.

ZOO EUROPA (ZOO EUROPA)

Novel | Cappelen Damm | 2018 | 512 pages

ZOO EUROPA is a stand alone novel with the same characters as in Nygårdshaug's earlier eco thrillers, known as the Mino trilogy (450 000 sold in Norway) and Chimera.

We are in Europe 40 years in the future. The world is ravaged by ecological and political collapse, and both in the United Kingdom and on the rest of the continent, there are civil war-like states between neo nazis, fascists and groups of radicalized climatic refugees that have escaped to Europe from their inhabitable homelands.

In a dystopian London, with no working infrastructure as we know it from present times, Norwegian Karl Iver Lyngvin is located. He is fleeing not only from the fatal environment he is in, but also from a mission and a woman he has failed.

Somewhere in the English countryside he meets the eccentric Lilith Larkindale, and together they start a long and dramatic march through England...They are not the only people walking- and they are all aiming for the same goal.
