On his first day at the University in Oslo, Albert notices a girl, Eirin, in front of the coffee machine. They have never met before. Still, they both startle as they see the other. 37 years later, in April 2009, Eirin is in Melbourne at a Freshwater biology conference, and Albert is alone when he receives some truly terrible news from Marianne. Can he go on living with what he now knows?

He travels to the Fairytale House, the small cabin that has been Eirin's and his safe haven for many years. And grants himself a 24 hour deadline to write down the history of their life together. There are things he must try and understand. During the course of this time, he will make the most important decision of his life. And there are things he needs to confess, things that involve Marianne. He will not check out from this planet leaving behind a great lie.

In 1991, when Jostein Gaarder wrote Sophie's World he believed that a novel on the history of philosophy would appeal only to a specialist readership. In 1995 the book was the most sold novel in the world.

To date Sophie's World has been translated into 64 languages and has sold over 50 million copies. Jostein Gaarder's other works, both his children's books and adult novels such as The Solitaire Mystery, Through a Glass, Darkly, Vita Brevis, The Ringmaster's Daughter, The Orange Girl, Anna. A Fable About The Earth's Climate And Environment, and The Puppeteer, have proved hugely popular and been published around the world.
