This is a book for young people, written as a diary.

Emma is 14 years old, and is trying to navigate between grief, having a crush, and girl drama. She has a friend who lies and cheats, and she is uncertain about what she wants out of life. She is grieving for her little sister who died suddenly at the age of 4. How can God or the universe let something like that happen – and why? Why?

'[...] Suongir has introduced a new genre into Saami literature [...] important that a book is written for 10-to-15-year-olds that is aimed specifically at their age group and that takes them seriously [...] the illustrations are a perfect fit to the text [...]'

Saami Council

'[...] captures the challenges facing young people [...] addresses serious and important subjects [...] The author is good at sustaining the reader's interest, and shares Emma's thoughts in a masterly way [...] The illustrations add an extra dimension to the diary entries [...]'
