

Jan Deberitz

CHILDREN AND YOUNG ADULTS

The tiny great world of the dressing-Gown creature Morgenkåpedyrets lille, store verden

2006
147 Pages

The dressing-gown creature lives in a canopy bed. He likes sleeping till noon and has also a weakness for wild strawberries and chocolate cake. He has three best friends: Lodar, Beisan and Toto-deidei.

Lodar has many books and aims to be the most clever person in the world. Beisan likes to keep everything neat and tidy, while Toto-deidei is a happy, scatterbrained creature, who lives in an old car. One day Piggdyret shows up. He is rather sinister and cross and does not want to be friends with anyone.

The arrival of new friends makes everything much more exciting and frightening, but luckily also much more fun. Because Piggdyret is not the only one who has joined the world of the four friends ...

Morgenkåpedyrets lille, store verden is an imaginative, fully illustrated book for reading aloud aimed at children aged five and older.

Damm 2006
Illustrated by Annine Qvale
Format: 198 x 272 mm
For readers aged 5+

Jan Deberitz published his first novel, Skogene blør (The Forests are Bleeding) in 1975. He has written books for children, young people and adults. His most well-known children's books are I morgentåkedalen (In the Valley of the Morning Mist) and Morgenkåpedyret (The Dressing-Gown Creature).

ANNINE QVALE
(b. 1963)

Annine Qvale writes children's books, and is an artist and illustrator. She is best known for her books about the Chestnut People.

RIGHTSHOLDER

Damm Agency
Fridtjof Nansens vei 14
NO-0055 Oslo
Tel: + 47 24 05 10 54
Fax: +47 24 05 12 98
gerd.moss@damm.no
www.damm.no

