

Ørjan N. Karlsson

The Night Mirror

Nattspeilet

Genre: Children

Category: Novel - vol. 1 in a series

Publisher: Gyldendal

Year: Autumn 2017

Pages: 153

English sample translation available

Mathias is in the hospital, he has cancer and is afraid that he is not going to survive. One night a strange, barefooted girl suddenly appears in his room wearing an old shirt and dirty jeans. «My name is Tara», she whispers in a hoarse voice. «And I need your help».

She grabs Mathias' arm and tries to drag him out of bed. Mathias gets scared and pushes her away. Tara disappears, but a paper is left behind on the floor. A strange recipe for something called 'moon water'.

The Night Mirror is a story of darkness and hope. Of friendship and courage. And about being thrown into a strange world.

THE WORLD OF BIFROST

The Night Mirror is the first book in what will become a new fantasy series of four stand-alone novels for middle grade readers.

Each book will have a unique main character travelling between our world and Bifrost to take part in a quest. Every story gives new insights to the secrets of the magical world of Bifrost; animals and people, friends and foes, mythology and magic. Each book takes the reader to a unique geographical area of Bifrost and each book contains a map of that area. Lay all four maps together to view a complete map of the world of Bifrost.

The four main characters live in different parts of Norway. All four are contacted by someone from Bifrost and all four enter Bifrost through a magical portal. The main characters are two girls and two boys.

Photo: Julia Pike

Ørjan Nordhus Karlsson has published several thrillers, science fiction and crime novels for adults, as well as The Lance Trilogy for young adults. The Night Mirror is his first middle grade novel.

Foreign sales

Danish (Flachs Forlag)

Rightholder

Gyldendal Agency

anne.cathrine.eng@gyldendal.no

<http://eng.gyldendal.no/>

