Everybody Counts (Alle sammen teller)

Picture Book | Magikon | 2018 | 56 pages

Everybody Counts is a seek-and-find book, a counting book, and a picture book about humanity. We are counting people, from 0 to 7,5 billion. All the people belong to groups, e.g. a family, a flea market or an airport. We start with a boy and his family, and all the groups are related to them. Many people appear in different groups and situations, and throughout the book numerous narratives are created. The book provides a playful view of the many connections and coincidences in our lives. Every single one of us has a unique story, but we are all part of the same group – the world.

The World Said Yes! (Verden sa ja)

Picture Book | Cappelen Damm | 2018 | 48 pages

How did the world come into existence? How did we come into existence? Kaia Dahle Nyhus takes the reader along on a marvelous journey of discovery to find out where we come from and when we became people. It is an explanation of evolution for young children and told in an original and poetic way. This book kindles curiosity about the big questions: Who are we and where are we going?

You and I (Du og jeg)

Picture Book | Cappelen Damm | 2018 | 64 pages

Grandfathers rowboat is ready, little brother runs ahead. They are going to row, play the letter game, see the great ocean. But the girl in this story is hesitant. There is something that is hard to talk about. One day all of this will be their, grandfather says. The boat, the rain cap, the camping stove. But the girl does not want it. She only wants to keep her grandfather.

You and I is a story about loving someone, and about being afraid of losing the one you love.

The Bird Party (Fuglefesten)

Picture Book | Cappelen Damm | 2017 | 56 pages

Flapps is a nocturnal animal who gets bored when there's no one to play with. Everyone else sleeps at night – just not Flapps!

Sometimes Mark plays with her, but tonight Mark has to go to bed earlier than usual. Mark was invited to a birthday party at the birds' place. Flapps wasn't. So, she steals the invitation when Mark is sleeping and goes herself. But the birds aren't particularly interested in having a visit from Flapps. They want Mark, and there's a reason for that...

Threads (Tråder)

Picture Book | Cappelen Damm | 2017 | 40 pages

Threads is based on Torill Kove's latest animated film of the same name. A red thread lifts a woman up and leads her to a small child. The child is anxious and doesn't like to be touched, but eventually the two are tied together. We follow them through the child's upbringing – until the thread loosens and the child goes its own way.

A poignant and touching story about love and attachment, told almost without a single word.

I Am Death / I Am Life / I Am the Clown (Jeg er Døden / Jeg er Livet / Jeg er Klavnen)

Picture Book (series) | Magikon | 2015-2016-2017 | 48 pages

In the first book we meet Death, in the shape of a kind and considerate person. Death’s job is to collect everybody who is about to die – it may be insects and elephants, children and the old. Death performs the task in as gentle and caring a manner as possible.

In the second book we meet Life, in the shape of a kind and considerate person. She is the one who sets everything in motion. And what she loves the most is to give people strength and hope. Together the first two books address fundamental questions of life in a beautiful and poetic way.

I Am the Clown is the third book in the trilogy about life and death. Illustrated by Marine Schneider.

A Fish for Luna (En fisk til Luna)

Picture Book | Gyldendal | 2014 | 40 pages

Luna can't sleep. She opens her window and peeks out. There is something out there. Something is gliding slowly between the houses. Is it a balloon? A flying fish? Luna's parents say it is ugly and that she can't keep it, so Luna decides to help it back home. But it won't say where home is. All it says is "Ay", "Yue", "Kuu", "Maan", "Tsuki", "Karoo" and "Kamar". And it says "Luna". With great bravery Lisa Aisato explores life's big issues and presents an original and fresh take on subjects as human as loneliness and hope.

Tails Throughout Time (Halens historie)

Picture Book | Cappelen Damm | 2013 | 40 pages

This is a fantastically original picture book built on one simple yet alluring premise: What would life be like if people had tails? A shrewd and lexical text combined with classic and beautiful illustrations, Tails Throughout Time entices the reader to visit a hypothetical world – a world populated by people with tails! We see how tails can be used to convey emotions, how they can come in handy when we want to flirt a little, or even to poke fun at others. Tails Throughout Time is a beautiful and charmingly outlandish picture book written in the style of a factbook, all about the history of the tail. Illustrated by Daria Rychkova. Winner of the BolognaRagazzi Award - Opera Prima 2014.

Hello Earth! (Hallo Jorda!)

Picture Book (Vol. I in a series) | Cappelen Damm | 2007 | 40 pages

Hello Earth! is a search and find book. We follow six people on Earth for 16 hours. The reader can also find a lot of other things that happen or change from one hour to the next. For example, the small red car that's always going the wrong way, or the giraffe that's eating nearly all the leaves on the tree, and the lady who's knitting a really long scarf; all these can be found in the book.

Other titles in the series are: Hello City! (2010), Hello Planet! (2012), Hello Down There! (2014), Hello Sea! (2016), Hello Forest! (2017).

Garmann's Summer (Garmanns sommer)

Picture Book (Vol. I in a trilogy) | Cappelen Damm | 2006 | 44 pages

Summer is nearly over and Garmann is going to start school. He dreads it, and he tries to find out if adults dread doing things, too. At the same time, he keeps checking if he's got a loose tooth. Garmann thinks about life and death, the present and the future. «What do you want to be when you grow up?» Aunt Augusta whispers to him. «A sword swallower,» Garmann answers.

Winner of the Bologna Ragazzi Award 2007.

Two more titles on Garmann have been published to much acclaim in Norway and abroad: Garmann's Street (2008), and Garmann's Secret (2010) - both so far sold to eleven countries.
