This Isn't Us (Dette er ikke oss)

Young Adult Novel | Gyldendal Norsk Forlag | 2019 | 192 pages

A painfully realistic novel about young people who have to take care of themselves when their parents aren't able to be parents. It's a story about neglect, but one in which for once we see a support system that works.

It's almost a year since mum died. At home, Sanna has to look after dad, but all he wants to do is sleep and write. He almost never eats and he barely even looks at her. Things haven't been much better at school since her best friend stopped speaking to her.

Then Yousef joins the class. He shows her how to take pictures and to see the world in a whole new way. He, too, has more responsibility than a teenager should have, and Sanna has finally found someone who understands her. But can she trust him, or is he just like all the others?

The River (Elven)

Illustrated YA Novel | Cappelen Damm | 2018 | 144 pages

The River is a quiet and beautifully illustrated novel about the big and small things that make life difficult for teenage Helena. She feels like she's just washing away, like the water beneath the ice in the river she sees each day on her way to school. Helena wishes she could take up more space, that she could say what she thinks and feels. That she could manage to comfort Dad, or dare to talk to Andreas in the other class. Then one spring day, the ice starts to break – and something dramatic happens. For readers aged 12-15.

Being Young (Til ungdommen)

Young Adult Short Stories | Pitch forlag | 2018 | 255 pages

Being Young was the best selling YA book in Norway 2018. It received fantastic reviews (6 of 6 stars), as well as The Riksmålsociety children and YA prize for 2018. It was also nominated to the Booksellers Award 2018, and the prestigious YA prize Uprisen in 2019. With more than 65 000 copies sold, the book has definitely reached a large YA audience.

Linn Skåber has interviewed young people and asked them about their lives – about everything from acne to peace and loss. What's the best thing about being a young person? What's the worst? What would you change about it? Why are adults so lame? What are you afraid of?

The book is beautifully illustrated by Lisa Aisato.

Otherwise I'm Not a Human Being (Ellers er jeg ikke noe menneske)

Young Adult Novel | Cappelen Damm | 2018 | 272 pages

Mathilde is fourteen. She doesn't want to go to school. Mom doesn't understand what's going on – even when Mathilde ends up in the hospital. She doesn't have any friends other than a dog named Eddi, and Xiu, her friend she plays with online. But Xiu also has his/her own problems.

Otherwise, I'm not a Human Being is about being bullied, but still standing up for yourself, for others, and for the world. And about the fact that most things are the grown ups' fault.

Nominated for the Critic's Prize 2018

Tomorrow Everything Will Be Dark (trilogy) (I morgen er alt mørkt (trilogi))

Young Adult Novel | Cappelen Damm | 2014-2015-2016

This trilogy, selected by Norwegian young adults as the best book of 2015, has shocked and engaged teens in a sensational way. Film rights have been sold.

Tomorrow Everything Will Be Dark is an action-packed story, and a merciless and brutal dystopia realistically depicted in a cross between disaster and a kind of zombie genre. We follow completely ordinary teenagers who are suddenly cast into chaos. Everything that is safe and civilized around them collapses and disappears. They end up as refugees, must make morally impossible and inhuman choices, and yet still have an indomitable will to live throughout all the darkness. And, as the teenagers they are, infatuation and burgeoning eroticism play an important role in life. Norwegian IBBY's Honorary list 2017.

The Raven Rings 1. Odin's Child (Ravneringene 1. Odinsbarn)

Young Adult Novel (series) | Gyldendal | 2013 | 615 pages

Fifteen winters old, Hirka learns that she is not like everybody else. She is a human, a child of Odin – a creature from another world. She has no tail, and she cannot access the magic of the earth. According to legend she is also dangerous, a carrier of disease. Her situation becomes all the more precarious as she realizes that someone powerful wants to kill her to make sure her origin remains a secret. But there are worse things than Odin's kin. Hirka is not the only creature to have broken through the gates. This award-winning epic fantasy trilogy for young adults has pageturner qualities and a clear crossover appeal. The world in which the story takes place, Ymslanda, is clearly influenced by Norse myths, but its inspiration can also be found in feudal Japan.

Winner of the Fabel Award (Fabelprisen) 2014, ARK Bookseller's Book of the Year Award 2015 and also on IBBY Norway's Honour List 2016.

Almost Autumn (Nærmere høst)

Young Adult Novel | 2012 | 245 pages

Ilse is 15 years old and lives at Biermannsgate 10 in the Grunerløkka district of Oslo. One afternoon while her parents are asleep, she sneaks out of the house in a thin summer dress. It is October and the cold autumn wind tugs at her dress as she walks down Toftes gate. But she doesn't feel the cold. The only thing that means anything to her right now is that she is going to meet Hermann. The year is 1942. Soon everything will change.

Marianne Kaurin's debut novel is told by five different voices, including that of 15-year-old Ilse. Kaurin writes matter-of-factly and with poetic empathy about how everyday life during the war changes in the most dramatic way when Ilse's family is broken up and deported by the ship 'Danube' to Auschwitz.

Barsakh. Emilie, Samuel and the Gran Canary (Barsakh. Emilie, Samuel og Gran Canaria)

Young Adult Novel (Vol. I in a series) | Cappelen Damm | 2009 | 136 pages

Like most teenagers, Emilie is concerned with her appearance. Clothes and calories occupy her thoughts. She works out every day and eats as little as possible. Every meal is a fight. Now Emilie and her family are going to spend the holidays in the Gran Canary. After lunch she sets out for a jog, while only a few kilometers away a boatful of African refugees washes ashore. Soon their paths will cross. For Emilie, the encounter with the refugees - their hunger and impoverishment - is a wake-up call and a turning point in her own life.
