The Wonder Down Under (Gleden med skjeden)

Aschehoug | 2017 | 308 pages

The Wonder Down Under is a book which explains everything you wanted to know about the vagina but didn't dare to ask. It also deflates a lot of things you thought you knew but which the authors show are actually just myths.

The Wonder Down Under is written with grace, humour, authority and non-judgemental straightforwardness.

Silence in the Age of Noise. The Joy of Shutting out the World (Stillhet i støyens tid. Gleden ved å stenge verden ute)

Essay | Kagge Forlag | 2016 | 144 pages

"Whenever I am unable to walk, climb or sail away from the world, I have learned to shut it out. Learning this took time". The author poses three questions: What is silence? Where can it be found? Why is it more important now than ever? A personal, charming and significant book on a topic that powerfully addresses our modern times. "Shutting out the world is not about turning your back on your surroundings, but rather the opposite: it is seeing the world more clearly, maintaining your direction and taking a stab at loving your life."

Shark Drunk. The Art of Catching a Large Shark from a Tiny Rubber Dinghy in a Big Ocean through Four Seasons (Havboka)

Travelogue | Forlaget Oktober | 2015 | 320 pages

A book about a mission, the famous Lofoten islands and the art of catching a shark from a tiny rubber dinghy. More than anything: It is a book about the ocean. With Shark Drunk, Morten Strøksnes has written an award-winning and superbly enjoyable book, full of knowledge, enthusiasm and excitement. Strøksnes attempts to acquire the ocean's swaying language through uses of poetry, science, history, ecology, fiction, mythology - or the almost obsolete language older local fishermen still use to describe the sea. The result is a salty and entertaining book.
