

Hans Sande/Gry Moursund (III)

PICTURE BOOK

The snake in the grass
Slangen i gresset

2007
40 Pages

A little bunny comes hopping along. He's happy because the big, wide world is so lovely! Full of sun and carrots and juicy leaves. But a green snake is lying in wait in the grass. Is it a cobra? Or a nasty rattlesnake? The snake is good at spitting water, and brilliant at lying.

A lovely, riotous story about discovering the world, both the one inside us and the one outside.

Gry Moursund (b. 1969) is one of Norway's finest illustrators, living in Berlin. She has made several picture books together with Hans Sande.

Nominated to the Critics' Prize 2007
So far sold to USA (MacKenzie Smiles)

Gyldendal 2007

Sande is a psychiatrist and author. He writes prose and poetry for children and grown-ups, has received several literary prizes and is translated into Danish.

RECENT PREVIOUS TITLES:

"Archimedes in Fart-land", illustrated by Gry Moursund, 2006

"The Frog", illustrated by Gry Moursund, 2003

"Archimedes and the Escalator", illustrated by Gry Moursund, 2002

"Archimedes and the Sandwich", illustrated by Gry Moursund, 2001

RIGHTSHOLDER

Gyldendal Agency
P.O. Box 6860 St. Olavs plass
NO-0130 Oslo
Tel: +47 22 03 41 00
Fax: +47 22 03 42 10
foreignrights@gyldendal.no
www.gyldendal.no