Every once in a while a children's book pops up that succeeds in telling a completely new story, while simultaneously recalling memories of the great classics of children's literature. Jacob and the Dog is such a book.

The story of Jacob who is mourning the loss of his dog, but in the end finds a new friend, is moving, endearing and exciting, and rendered in a warm and forthright language that is perfectly suited for reading out loud.

Asbjørn Tønnesen is responsible for the beautiful illustrations.

Liv Frohde lives in Oslo. She made her debut in 1996 with the children's book Løftet. It was translated into Japanese and more than 80 000 copies were published in Japan. She has written many books for children and young people. Several of these books have been translated into Japanese and German. She has worked as a primary school teacher for many years.
