

Atle Næss

Munch. A Biography Munch. En biografi

Gyldendal 2004
607 Pages

NON-FICTION
BIOGRAPHY

Atle Næss (born 1949) has written a series of critically appraised books.

He has studied English, Norwegian and linguistics and has a cand.philol. degree from the University of Oslo. Before becoming a full-time writer, he worked as a teacher. His first book, the novel Gun, was published in 1975. He often bases his work on historical sources.

In 2001 he was awarded the Brage Prize for his biography of Galileo Galilei.

FOREIGN SALES

Bulgaria (Svetlana Yancheva - Izida), Denmark (Politikens Forlag), Estonia (Tänapäev), Finland (Otava), France (Editions Hazan), Germany (Berlin University Press), The Netherlands (Uitgeverij Meulenhoff), Poland (Wydawnictwo W.A.B.), Russia (Ves Mir)

PREVIOUS TITLES

The Tentmaker, novel 2012
Thy Neighbor's Property, novel 2009
The Root of Minus One, novel 2006
Munch. A Biography, 2004
Inside Curves, novel 2002
When Earth Stood Still. Galileo Galilei, biography 2001
Doubting Thomas, novel 1997

RIGHTSHOLDER

Gyldendal Agency:
anne.cathrine.eng@gyldendal.no |
eng.gyldendal.no

