

Enver Djuliman / Lilian Hjorth

Build bridges, not walls
Bygg broer, ikke murer

2007

Build bridges, not walls contains about 100 concrete exercises in human rights, multicultural understanding and peaceful conflict resolution, in addition to short, but thorough introductions to the themes. This is an important toolbox for all educators.

The exercises can be used in many connections. They are a resource for teachers both in primary and secondary schools as well as in high schools, for adult educators, for non-governmental organizations, for youth leaders and everyone who organizes courses of different kinds. The participating methods run like a scarlet thread throughout the book. The exercises are suggestive, exiting, funny, challenging and full of knowledge. This type of education is something different: As seventeen year old Jasmina said: - This was a different kind of school!

Humanist Forlag 2007
451 Pages

To be published in Bosnian/Serbian/Croatian by the Bosnian and Norwegian Helsinki Committee.

NON-FICTION

The authors Enver Djuliman and Lillian Hjorth have ten years of teaching human rights, multicultural understanding and conflict resolution.

Through their work in the Norwegian Helsinki Committee for Human Rights they have taught youngsters, university students, refugees, teachers, journalists and official employees in the Balkan countries, Belarus, Russia (including Ingushetia and Chechnya) and Norway. In addition to their own experience and expertise, they have collected materials from the UN, The European Council, Amnesty International and other organizations and actors.

Lillian Hjorth has previously published the book Lesebok for levende (2003).

RIGHTSHOLDER

Humanist Forlag
Bente Pihlstrøm (Publishing Director)
P.O.Box 6744 St. Olavs Plass
NO-0130 Oslo
Tel: +47 22 36 48 29
Fax: +47 23 15 60 21
forlag@human.no
www.humanistforlag.no

