The animals stand in line. It looks fun, Twig thinks. He wants to join. He wants to play!

It's not a game, the animals tell him. It's a line, they say, and order Twig to stand at the very back. Then Twig doesn't find it to be fun anymore.

The Line is a fanciful fable and an existential drama from the forest.

Nominated for the 2024 Ministry of Culture's Best Picture Book Award, the 2024 Brage Prize and the 2024 Critics' Prize

'A brilliant picture book! [...] The book has a "meaning of life" sparkle in the same way as the wonderful picture books by the Australian Shaun Tan.'

VG, 6/6 stars

'A stroke of genius! [...] Simple and smart: Per Dybvig gives us a trickster on the path of life. [...] Thoughts can turn to [...] waiting for Godot. [...]. It can be devoured and savored with care, with a flavor that lasts.'

NRK, 6/6 stars

'[...] an achievement to make this type of reflection accessible to both young and older readers through a story full of suspense, imagination and humor [...] raising the bar for Norwegian Children's Literature.'

Genre: Children and Young Adults

Category: Picture Book

Publisher: Det Norske Samlaget

Year: 2024 Pages: 40

ISBN: 9788234012921

A warm and humoruous picture book about being different by multi talent Hilde Myklebust, with charming illustrations by Bård Sletvold Torkildsen

One day, Piglet discovers something that utterly shocks him: He doesn't have a curl in his tail! All the other pigs have sprightly curled tails, but not Piglet. He must get a curl in his tail, because that's what pigs are supposed to have, right? The other animals on the farm aren't particularly helpful, and good advice is hard to come by. But then he meets a little girl who lives on the farm. Can she help Piglet, do you think?

A vibrant and delightful story about music, siblings, and doing whatever it takes to feel included.

Tone loves playing with her older brother, Daniel. They do all kinds of fun things like building forts and having dance parties. But when stupid Ingeborg Plingeborg comes over, they exclude Tone from their games. They only care about the marching band, which Tone is too young to be a part of. No fair!

Illustrated by Skinkeape.

'For younger children, there's a lot to discover in this book, which is a treasure cove of coveted objects – in addition to the aforementioned brass instruments, there is, for instance, a fire alarm! An emergency exit! A fire truck with sirens! Things that fall into the toilet! The prose is attentive and grounded.'

An Enemy of the People is about Dr Stockmann, who discovers that the bathing water in the city's spa is contaminated with dangerous bacteria. He expects people to value his discovery and thinks it will help improve the city. Instead, his political enemies try to destroy him, attempting to silence him with threats. Dr Stockmann stands his ground and in the last act, he delivers one of Ibsen's most famous lines: "The strongest man in the world is he who stands most alone."

An Enemy of the People is a play that outraged people in its day, but that has gained fresh relevance in our own era. This is the first book in a new series for children about the works of Henrik Ibsen. With the aid of illustrations and simplified text suitable for younger readers, the series aims to introduce Ibsen's plays to new generations all over the world. Ibsen is the world's second-most performed playwright after Shakespeare. This series will give children an understanding of what Ibsen's texts are about and what they can teach us today.

Kirste Paltto (b. 1947) grew up in the Tana valley in northern Finland and now lives in Rovaniemi. She became the first Saami female author to be published with the release of her collection of short stories, Soagnu (The Betrothal) in 1971. Several of her adult novels have been translated into Italian, German, English and Hungarian, in addition to the Nordic languages.

Sunna Kitti, is a freelance illustrator and comic artist from Inari, Finland. She is now studying graphic design in Rovaniemi. Sunna has no prior art education, but is a self taught artist who used to draw weird, quirky Sci-Fi comics to entertain her friends.

She has worked on multiple children's storybook. Besides that, her works range from educational books to animations, and a 200 page graphic novel based on the Sami national poem. For the past four years she has been working on a few hundred page long Sci-Fi action-adventurecomic story, that's continuing her habbit writing and drawing weird Sci-Fi comics.

The main characters – Urban and Ritni – are camping out in a tent on their own for the first time. They wake to find that a strange girl, – Laksi – has come into their tent. They become friends and, together with Laksi, they leave the safety of their own world and step out into the unknown on the back of the great eagle, Alli. In Laksi's world, the two children encounter beings they have never seen before. Laksi's friend has disappeared and the children must face numerous challenges in order to try and find her. What has happened to Laksi's friend? Who has made the mysterious tracks? On the way, they are helped by various different beings in solving the mystery. In order to receive this help, the children have to use touch as well as their own voices. They have to make up songs, stories and poems which they must then sing and recite themselves. With Laksi's help, the two children, at first small and timid, start to believe in their own strength and ability, eventually experiencing mastery of even this alien world.

Death-Defying Journeys: The Fantastic Tale of Migratory Birds That Fly Half-Way Around the World

Fuglenes farlige ferd, den fantastiske fortellingen om trekkfuglene som flyr halve jorda rundt

Genre: Children and Young Adults

Category: Non-fiction Publisher: Kagge Forlag Year: 2024 - ultimo September

Pages: 96

ISBN: 9788248936381

English sample translation available

Where do the birds go over the winter? This book tells the exciting story of the long and perilous journey that migratory birds make all the way from Norway to Africa – and just how they manage to survive.

Every autumn, millions of birds make the voyage from Norway to Africa. Some travel all the way to Antarctica! In the spring, the birds return – if they survive. Their long flights are filled with peril. In Death-Defying Journeys, we become acquainted with a selection of migratory birds, joining them on their long passage south in the autumn, and back to Norway the following spring. We learn about geography and nature along the way, and through both text and illustrations, the reader is invited to engage their curiosity for the natural world, both at home and further afield.

Andreas Tjernshaugen has written a playful and engaging book for children and young people, experty conveying his knowledge on the subject of wild animals and the environment around us.

I regret nothing Jeg angrer ikke på noe

Genre: Children and Young Adults Category: Young Adult Novel Publisher: Vigmostad & Bjørke

Year: 2024 Pages: 256

ISBN: 9788241963810

I am Jakub, and this book is about me. Three things you need to know before you read on: 1) I don't believe in hell, which is lucky as fuck, bc I would 100% end up there. 2) I have absolutely no feelings for Simon, seriously. 3) That rumour about me is greatly exaggerated.

I regret nothing is about 15 year old Jakub, a second generation Polish immigrant living in Norway. Growing up in a strict Catholic household, he is more concerned with partying and hooking up with boys than preparing for his Confirmation and acting straight. But as he tries to be both a fun gay best friends to the popular girls, a charming (lowkey fuckable) dude to the guys he meets, and dealing with his family's expectations at the same time, his life is becoming more and more like the hell he refuses to believe in.
